of the New York Herald, Governor Kem-per, then and now in Madison county, gave of her child for a few minutes as she was the following statement of his views on the Louisiana troubles :

"It is the atrocious system of misrule, forced on the unwilling people of some of the southern States, which has subjected virtue and intelligence to the rule of vice and ignorance; which has put the free-born and educated classes under the dominion of their late slaves, led on by miscreant adven-turers, compared with whom the negro is as Hyperion to a Satyr; which has paralyzed the industry of whole communities and given them up to be pillaged and sacked by the most daring plunderers and thieves America ever produced; and which constitutes a black and damning stain on the civilization of the nineteenth century. It has wrought out its logical resuits at New Orleans. The flesh will quiver as the pincers tear. The South can never recover and the North can never prosper as long as the power of the common government upholds those who harass and plunder the section which produces the chief exports of the country. "The negro ought not to be blamed, for he rarely commits wrongs except such as partisan syndicates at the North predeter-mine to be done, or adventurers at the South instigate him to do. "The Kellogg government was inaugurated by force and fraud. Congress refused to interfere in the contest in Louisiana, and deliberately ignored it. The Federal Legislature thus sanctioned the policy of 'laissez nous faire.' The Federal Executive will reverse that policy, postpone peace and reconstruction, and prolong the evils that now depress the business interests of the whole country, if the sword is again flourished over a State, and the army and navy employed to uphold the Kellogg usurpation over the people of Louisiana."

RADICAL RATIFICATION MEETING .- The Radicals held a meeting Saturday night at Assembly Hall to ratify the nomination of Mr. Rush Burgess, the candidate for Congress. The hall was well filled, and about three-fourths of those present were whites, including about 200 or 300 stone-cutters and others employed at Ordway & Co.'s works, opposite Rocketts. They marched up town in a body, headed by the First Regiment Band, and were seated in the orchestra chairs. The meeting was called to order by Mr. I. H. Shield, secretary of the lately-appointed District Committee, and on his motion the following officers were elected: President, Charles S. Mills; Vice-Presidents, J. N. Van rissey, John Bacon Crenshaw, V. A. Favier,
